

AT&T Recovery Efforts for Japan

As of March 16, 2011, AT&T customers have donated more than $1 million to the American Red Cross relief efforts.

No text message fees applied to wireless customers texting REDCROSS to 90999 to support the people affected in Japan. On March 16, 2011, AT&T announced on Twitter and Facebook that it would expedite text message donations made to the Red Cross.

AT&T is offering wireless billing relief for consumers calling and texting family and friends in Japan. Retroactive to March 11 and continuing through March 31, AT&T wireless postpaid customers will not be charged for international long distance usage from the U.S. and Puerto Rico to Japan. This includes text messages to Japan that originated from a U.S. wireless number.

Also effective March 11 through March 31, AT&T residential wireline customers are eligible for up to 60 minutes of free calling time for calls from the United States to Japan. On receiving their wireline bill, customers must call AT&T to receive billing adjustments of up to 60 minutes.

AT&T has made TV Japan, the 24-hour Japanese news channel, available for free to all U-verse® TV subscribers so they can keep up with the latest news and recovery efforts from Japan. TV Japan is available to all U-verse TV customers for free through March 25 on channel 3680.

AT&T is donating 10,000 prepaid calling cards to the U.S. military for distribution to those supporting humanitarian relief efforts in Japan.

AT&T is supporting three international relief agencies – Télécoms Sans Frontières, Project HOPE and Aidmatrix Network ® – by contributing $275,000 to assist ongoing relief efforts for the victims in Japan.
